We will restage the 2008 CALLALOO Symposium, "The African Presence in Mexico," at the Modern Fine Arts Museum in Houston, Texas, from February 11 through 13, 2010. This international symposium, which is co-sponsored by the Africana Studies Program of Johns Hopkins University, will again focus on "the road to blackness, a search for identity within contemporary Afro-Mexican communities." The symposium is free and open to the general public. For additional information, visit our website (<http://callaloo.tamu.edu>) or telephone us at 979.458.3108.

JOIN US IN ETHIOPIA, JUNE 2010

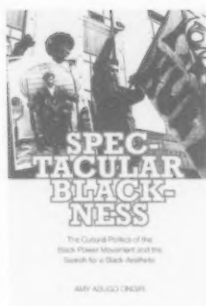

The CALLALOO Retreat / Conference Group, a collective of African Diaspora academics and creative writers, will hold its 2010 conference June 13–18 at Addis Ababa University, Ethiopia. This year's focus is "(Black) Movements: Poetics and Praxis." If you elect to attend this international Conference but decide not to attend all sessions of the conference, you might want to take advantage of the organized tours of the city and nearby areas of Addis Ababa. We will spend a second week in the country devoted to a major tour of ancient and contemporary sites in Northern Ethiopia, including ancient rock-hewn churches (see image above), Lake Tana, the Semien Mountains, and such cities as Gondar, the center of the Ethiopian castles and renaissance; Axum, the birth site of Ethiopian civilization; and Lalibela—all of which are World Heritage Sites registered by UNESCO. If you are interested in joining us, go to our website (<http://callaloo.tamu.edu>), email us callaloo@tamu.edu, or telephone us at 979.458.3108 for further information. For other upcoming Callaloo events, see our website.

The Church of Our Lady Mary of Zion is located in Axum. It is said that this church houses the Ark of the Covenant.

SPECTACULAR BLACKNESS

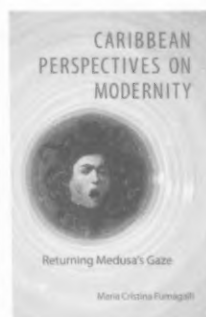

The Cultural Politics of the Black Power Movement and the Search for a Black Aesthetic

AMY ABUGO ONGIRI

"Spectacular Blackness is one of the sharpest discussions of the Black Arts Movement, Black Power, and popular culture that I have encountered. It is the best account of the cultural impact of the Black Panther Party for Self-Defense that I have read."

CARIBBEAN PERSPECTIVES ON MODERNITY

Returning Medusa's Gaze

MARIA CRISTINA FUMAGALLI

Taking up the challenge of redefining modernity from a Caribbean perspective instead of assuming that the North Atlantic view of modernity is universal, Maria Cristina Fumagalli shows how the Caribbean's contributions to the modern world not only provide a more accurate account of the past but also have the potential to change the way in which we imagine the future.

EXHIBITING SLAVERY

The Caribbean Postmodern Novel as Museum

VIVIAN NUN HALLORAN

"Exhibiting Slavery makes a comprehensive and convincingly argued linkage between recent developments in the museum culture of the transatlantic slave trade and the plethora of literary production on slavery. Halloran's is the best book to date on this important topic."—NATASHA BARNES, author of Cultural Conundrums: Gender, Race, Nation, and the Making of Caribbean Cultural Politics
